Credos

Jacob Champagne

I believe God is someone I can confide in and pray to. I think Jesus is a symbol of God's love for us. The Holy Spirit is the third person in the Trinity. And I believe the church is a fun and loving place where people can go to learn more about God.

Camron Costello

I think Jesus was put on this earth as a symbol of God's love for us. I believe Jesus is the son of God. I think the Holy Spirit or Holy Ghost is the third person in the Trinity and the church is my community of faith.

Arwen Foppiano

I believe that God is love and the meaning of life. He helps us through tough times and makes us stronger. I believe that Jesus is the person sent to convince us to love ourselves and each other. I believe the Holy Spirit is the concept of existence of life on earth and how it interacts. I believe that the church is a place to learn about how to make a relationship with God and Jesus.

Kaitlyn Hershman

I believe that God isn't our birth – given father but loves us like one would. He listens and answers our prayers and is the giver of life. I believe that Jesus is meant to not only forgive our sins, but also make us better people, and bring people together. I believe that the Holy Spirit is the presence of God and is here for us during an emotional or troublesome time...or any time you may need Him. I believe that the church is a group of believers for people to get and give support and bring people together.

Jennifer Kelly

I believe that God is our guide, leading us to a place of peace. Sometimes you feel lost and stuck, and don't know which way to go. That's when God directs you where he has planned for you to go. God is in control and will lead you wherever he believes the path is for you. I believe that Jesus is my savior. I believe he died on the cross for our sins and shows God, not our sins, but rather our strengths. I believe the Holy Ghost is a comforter, I believe that the Holy Spirit lives within us and is there to help us through tough times and provide us with the feeling that someone is always there for you. I believe that the church is a place of worship. The church helps us to grow our faith with others and see the beauty of God.

Benjamin Parent

I believe that God is a leader who is by your side in every obstacle you may face in your life, easy or challenging. I believe Jesus gives us what we need in order to celebrate the Father God. I believe the presence of the Holy Spirit is with you every day of your life. This present gives the comfort and the courage that you need. The church is a community in which everybody believes in the same thing and celebrates the word of God.

Sophie Soricelli

To me, God is a mentor. Although I can't see him, I can usually feel his presence. I can feel when he may be disappointed in me or happy with me. He is a mentor because he is wise and always has a way. Jesus comes to me as a leader. He helps justify my actions for good or bad, he tells me or shows me what to do. He is a leader who helps me walk to life and leads me through life. During the good and the bad he walks me through life to a clearing where things are good. The Holy Spirit is a presence that is also a feeling that doesn't go away. The Holy Spirit is the actions of God and Jesus' ideas. It's that push you get to do something, the feeling you get when you're unsure of things and you finally do it. It's the feeling of comfort and completion when the shove is a good move. The church is a community that is welcoming. A wholesome and meaningful community that makes you feel warm and good about things. A church is a place where there's no judgment besides God's judgment. A place you don't have to be afraid to be who you are or believe what you believe, you can just be yourself, the way God made you.
