The Welcoming Prayer/God's Greeting

Rev. Duncan Nichol

The Call to Confession

David Grammerstorf

Prayer of Confession

O Lord our God, you call us to work for a world where all will be fed and have dignity, but we find ourselves distracted by our own desires. You call us to seek justice and peace, but we are satisfied with injustice and discord. You call us to bring liberty to the oppressed, but we do not insist on freedom for all.

Forgive us, O Lord. Turn us to your will by the power of your Spirit, so that all may know your justice and peace; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Savior.
(Silence for your personal confession.)

We Respond to the Good News

(Please print your prayer request on the blue card in the pew rack and deposit in offering plate.)

The Offering

The Doxology: “Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow”

The Offertory Prayer

Refresh and strengthen those for whom the dark brings neither rest or sleep: who guard our shores, defend our homes, and keep the peace; who carry on the unrelenting business of the world; who through the night, at home, in hospice, or in hospital, watch over others. Make darkness light around them and grant them peace. Amen.

Prayer Hymn: “O Lord, Hear my Prayer ” #203 (Green Hymnal)

Prayers of Thanksgiving

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
